sports

The PIKEUR Sportswear collection combines functional styles with casual, sporty cuts. In addition to classic shades such as steel grey and nightblue, this year's autumn/winter season is characterized by strong rumba red and coast blue. The wide range of lightweight, partially water and wind-repellent models offer a high level of comfort and functionality for leisure and competitive athletes who want to stay warm through the winter.

athleisure

PIKEUR Athleisure stands for clean, confident styles that meet the functional demands of modern show jumpers in particular. Classic black is complemented by trendy colors such as soft sandstorm and sober mint and strong deep ocean. The highlight of this collection is the functional PIKEUR Raincoat, which is not only eye-catching, but also features practical functions such as water and windproofness and perfect fit in the saddle.
